OF MAINE.

BRYAN QUOTES FROM CLAY.

William J. Bryan, in one of his speeches in North Carolina quoted from a speech made in the United States Senate on January 20, 1840, by Henry Clay, in which he said:

"Of all the conditions of society that is most adverse, it is that in which there is a constant and rapid diminution in the amount of circulating medium. Debtors become unable to pay their debts, property falls, the market is glutted, business declines and labor is thrown out of employment, selling becomes enormous, and purchasers become scarce from an unwillingness to make investments with the prospects of almost certain loss. When money is rising people want to turn everything into dollars and during that time we must have stagnation of business. Falling prices make hard times, and you cannot stop hard times until you stop the general fall in prices. Have you gentlemen reflected upon the consequences of the system of depletion? I have already stated that the country is going down by weight of debt. If the currency be greatly diminished, as beyond all example it has been, how is this debt to be extinguished? Property, the resource on which the debtor relied for his payment, will decline in value, and it may happen that a man who honestly contracted a debt on the worth of property, which had a value at the time sufficient to warrant the debt, will find himself stripped of his property and his debt will remain unextinguished."

Mr. Bryan directs attention to the fact that Mr. Clay simply described the conditions which confront us to-day, and yet the gold men not only refuse to recognize that condition and afford relief from that condition, but they pledge themselves to a policy which increases the financial distress of this country, makes debts harder to pay and summons the sheriff to take charge of the property of the citizen, and leaves the debt unextinguished to hang over him still.

We have, as Mr. Clay said, the most adverse condition of society, a constant and rapid diminution in the amount of circulating medium. Debtors are unable to pay their debts, and men who honestly contracted a debt on property which had a value greater than the debt at the time, find themselves deprived of his property and the debt not all extinguished. The market is glutted and yet the cry of the McKinley men is to open the factories, when there are more goods on the market now than can be disposed of, because the people have not money to buy them.

This is like advising a farmer, who has his last season's crop stored in his granaries, because he does not like to sell it at less than the cost of production, to raise larger crops as a means of creating a market.

The population of the country is increasing at the rate of two and a half or three millions a year, while the money of the country has been reduced one-half, by making gold the only primary money. This reduces the market value of property one-half, and the farmer or laborer who is working for fifty cents a day cannot afford to buy the products of factories where operatives are paid seventy-five cents or one dollar a day. With the markets already glutted, opening the factories will not create a demand for their products unless the volume of money is increased.

AN IGNOMINIOUS RETREAT.

The McKinley Club recently challenged the Bryan Club to joint debate upon the money, tariff and other issues. The Bryan Club replied that they were ready and willing to debate the money question, but believed, as the Republican party of the State has frequently declared, that the silver question was of first importance and that the other questions should be held in abeyance until this is settled. The editor of the Gazette, who is chairman of the committee of the McKinley Club which issued the challenge and presumably authorized to speak for the club, replies through his paper to the effect that the Bryan Club represents a one idea party and declines to debate. He finds fault because the record of his party for two years past was brought forward as proof that both clubs should, if they represent the declared views of their respective parties in this State, desire to see this question first settled and that it was idle to argue that tariff would bring prosperity to this country when it had been so recently asserted by both parties that there could be no permanent prosperity until the money question is settled and silver remonetized. They proposed to argue the record of the Republican party for half a century. We reply by their own record for two years and they get angry and call names. We call attention to their declaration of "steadfast devotion to the cause of the free and unlimited coinage of silver." Not four months old and they refuse to manifest their steadfast devotion (?) by arguing the silver cause at all unless three or four other questions, which they have admitted cannot bring permanent prosperity to this State, are also debated. We entirely agree with the recorded declaration of the only political organization in this State authorized to declare the Republican faith, and they refuse to be bound by it and say we are trying to crawl out of a small hole because we ask them to follow their own teachings. They know, as everyone else knows, as John Sherman recently admitted, that owing to the strong silver sentiment in the United States Senate, any change in tariff legislation until silver is remonetized or the political vote of the Senate is changed, is impossible, and they know or should know, that it will be at least four years before any such change can be made. The fact seems to be that having an imaginary stock of eloquence they sought to inflame it upon an innocent public by talking about things which have been discussed threadbare; by discussing what they claim will help the eastern manufacturer, and when they are invited to debate what is of vital importance to every interest in Nevada, they seek to hide their retreat by kicking up a dust. Perhaps it is just as well. Any party which can turn a back somersault on its own record in four months; whose "steadfast devotion to the cause of the free and unlimited coinage of silver" evaporates in four months into an endorsement of a national party, which is absolutely opposed to free coinage, and then saves its conscience by resolution for limited coinage, cannot be expected to face its record with equanimity or fail to grasp at anything to cover the shallowness of its pretensions.

REPUBLICAN HYPOCRISY.

Two years ago the Republican party of Nevada in State Convention assembled made the following declaration:

We solemnly declare that the attitude of the Silver party of this State presents a false issue and conveys the impression abroad that we are divided upon the silver question, when in truth and in fact there is no sentiment in this State adverse to the complete restoration of silver.

That was promulgated, by the Republicans of Nevada August 24, 1894. That the rank and file of the party believed in it there is no doubt, but that several of the leaders did not is now conclusively proved by their attitude in State Convention September 10, 1896, when they endorsed the Republican National platform, which declares against free coinage and pledges to maintain the gold standard.

What can honest men, who desire to see the State and nation prosperous and relieved from the incubus of the gold trust, think of the men who can practice such duplicity? Are they deserving of the respect and confidence of any candid person? Who can tell whether or not they mean anything that they say? In one breath they solemnly assert that there is no sentiment in Nevada adverse to the complete restoration of silver, and in the next as solemnly declare for the single gold standard. Is it surprising under such circumstances that the candid, respectable members of the Republican party, who believe in holding political parties to their pledges, should sever their affiliation with it when it repudiates its declarations and abandons principles for a prospective grab at Mr. Hanna's sack? If in truth and in fact there is no sentiment against silver in this State how happens it that the Republican party maintains its organization when it is pledged against free coinage? Are not the Republican leaders in Nevada presenting a false issue and conveying a false impression abroad when they allege that there is any sentiment in this State in favor of the single gold standard?

ARKANSAS RETURNS COMPLETE.

Complete returns from the Arkansas election show the following vote for Governor: Jones, Democrat, 91,124; Remmel, Republican, 35,836; Files, Populist, 13,989; Miller, Prohibitionist, 742. The total vote was 141,720, and Jones' plurality, 55,288. In 1894 the Democratic plurality was 48,724 in a total vote of 125,986.

The Elford Company
At the Opera House next Monday evening the Elford Company makes its initial appearance. They open in the great Eastern success, the powerful sensational melo-drama, "The Dangers of a Great City," one of the most prominent successes of the Morocco's Grand Opera House Company's present season. When it was put on in San Francisco early in that company's engagement it scored an emphatic hit, and as the company which will present it Monday night is especially well adapted for its presentation, a repetition of its San Francisco success will no doubt occur. In the cast will appear W. J. Elford, Frank Cooley, Frank Wyman, James Corrigan, Richard Scott, Herbert Wilke, Francis Gale and Jessie Norton, Lillie Elliot, Pauline Maitland, Mrs. Landers, little Pearl Landers and others.

Miss Jessie Norton has a great part as Jennie Wilson, a barren scum girl. She will introduce several of the latest songs during the action of the play. The piece abounds with startling situations and strong climaxes.

The scale of prices for the season is 10, 20 and 30 cents. The best seats in the house 30 cents; back seats 20 cents; children 10 cents; box seats 50 cents. No extra charge to reserve at Lake's.

There will be a change of play each evening. The company's second production will be the great English melo-drama, "The Silver King."

THE LADIES.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Company printed near the bottom of the package. For sale by all responsible druggists.

Ed. Swann, the tea drummer, spent the day here yesterday.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

THE SILVER QUESTION

Production of silver and gold—interesting information.

A writer in the New York World, who has devoted years to a study of the silver question, writes as follows:

In the table given by Secretary Carlisle the world's production of silver and gold from 1493 to 1870 was 20 ounces of silver to 1 ounce of gold, and in all that time silver was kept at commercial parity with free coinage at 15 to 15.5 to 1. Since 1870 Secretary Carlisle shows that the world's production has been 17 ounces of silver to 1 ounce of gold, and that without free coinage, with no mints open, the value of silver has been reduced one-half. His exact figures are as follows:

Gold, ounces.	Silver, ounces.	Ratio.
1493 to 1870 278,300,327	4,501,137,940	20 to 1
1870 to 1896 1,143,200,810	2,008,044,110	17 to 1
Total 441,501,137	6,509,182,050	15 to 1

The average production of silver since 1870, compared with gold, has been below that of the previous four centuries, and far below the average production prior to 1870.

The statement that the "enormous production of silver prior to 1870 was the cause of its demonetization" has been repeated so often that millions believe it; but the truth is that never in the history of the world had the production of silver fallen so low in proportion to that of gold.

Secretary Carlisle proves this by these figures of production:

Gold, ounces.	Silver, ounces.	Ratio.
1253 to 1896 32,491,312	145,417,142	4 to 1
1891 to 1896 20,747,913	177,009,862	8 to 1
1896 to 1870 31,350,470	215,257,911	7 to 1
Total 84,589,695	537,684,915	5 to 1

Never in the history of the world—not even during the tariff trust campaign of 1893, with its British flags and forgeries from British newspapers—has there ever been such shameless lying, such brazen falsehoods, as have been repeated daily by men and newspapers to deceive and delude those who cannot get at the facts.

Of all the opponents of free coinage The World alone has had the fairness and honesty to publish the official figures; but that is because its opposition is based on the wisdom of adopting it at the present time and without help from silver countries—not because it favors a single gold standard as the others do.

The effect of this reduction in the proportional production of silver from an annual average for centuries of 20 to 1 to 5 to 1 was a gold scare. There are plenty living now who remember it, and those who do not should read up on the monetary history of that time.

(Charles H. Kerr of Chicago publishes a book, "16 to 1," which presents an admirable summary of it.) All silver coins at 15.5 to 1 or 16 to 1 went to a premium. Bar silver even was worth more than the mint offered, and if the coins had not been at a premium would not have been coined. But let Secretary Carlisle's tables (page 17) tell the story:

BULLION VALUE OF THE SILVER IN A DOLLAR.

Year.	Value, Year.	Value, Year.	Ratio.
1853	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1854	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1855	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1856	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1857	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1858	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1859	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1860	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1861	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1862	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1863	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1864	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1865	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1866	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1867	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1868	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1869	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025
1870	1.0421831	1.0421831	1.025

This was not because the European mints coined an ounce into $1.333. At that rate the silver in a dollar is worth $1.030 at the European mint, and the normal quotation in the London market, which is called its bullion or commercial value, is not the 80 mills or 8 cents premium, but this amount less cost of transportation to the mint and loss of interest while awaiting coinage, which normally ranged from 7 to 20 mills. It was not until after the demonetization act of Feb. 12, 1873, that the bullion in a dollar fell below the French mint price, and not until 1874 that it fell below our own mint price of $1.00.

The flood of gold poured upon the world between 1850 and 1870 was the cause of the demonetization of silver. From 1493 to 1850, a period of 357 years, the total gold product of the world was 125,581,276 ounces, or nearly as much as in the previous 357 years.

The total amount of silver mined in the same time was 680,187,904 ounces, against 4,322,930,015 mined in the preceding 357 years. The gold stock of the world doubled between 1850 and 1870. The silver stock increased by only one-seventh, yet the advocates of a single gold standard have fooled millions of voters into the belief that it was the flood of silver and not of gold that caused the demonetization of the white metal. That the world has nothing to fear from any silver flood let us take the production of the last forty-five years to show:

THE WORLD'S PRODUCTION.

Gold, oz.	Silver, oz.	Ratio.
1493 to 1850 125,581,276	4,322,930,015	31 to 1
1851 to 1896 222,121,151	3,145,194,020	11 to 1
Total 347,702,427	7,468,124,035	18 to 1

The metal dollar had become so "cheap" in 1870—the price of commodities had become so high—that a little labor paid off a large debt. The bankers, backed by the rich, cut off over one-half the money of the world from its debt-paying power and relegated it to tokenage. Every silver coin in the world to-day is nothing but a "token," corresponding to a "spiel" money, chips or counters. It has value—and so has a red or blue chip, so long as the game is kept going or the proprietor of it is in funds, but no longer. Without free coinage of a metal there can be no honest money made of that metal that is money of final redemption.

It is as easy to prove that the fall in the price of commodities has been caused by the demonetization of silver as it has been to prove that there has been no flood of silver; but of what use would it be to do it? The few who would read it know it already. Plato once said of wisdom that wise men do not seek it, for they have it, and fools do not seek it because they do not know its value. It seems as if it applied to the facts on the silver question. Silver bugs have them, and gold bugs do not want them. T. E. W.

AROUND THE PRIMARIES.

Delegates Elected to Three County Conventions.

The holding of the three primaries yesterday afternoon for the purpose of electing delegates to the three different county conventions created considerable stir on the streets. A good vote was polled and a lively interest was manifested.

At the Democratic primaries there were 160 voters cast. There were forty-nine names on the ticket, nine of which were to be scratched. This occasioned something of a contest and resulted in the polling of a larger vote than was expected.

At the Silver party primaries matters ran along smoothly, there being only one ticket in the field, containing sixty-eight names. There were 104 votes polled, and, as there was no contest, the election passed off quietly.

A small vote was cast at the Populist primaries, there being but one ticket in the field. The delegates elected are as follows:

A "sound money" club has been organized among the railroad employees at Ogden. The Standard says that the rules and regulations governing clubs of this kind are formulated at headquarters and sent to various places to be adopted without asking any questions. As a matter of fact the silver men among the employees ask no questions because they are constantly reminded of a little story about a chicken and an axe.

The above is an illustration of the Rambler Quad, which was brought to town yesterday by C. C. Hopkins. This machine has paced many famous racing men in record-breaking trials and it is the holder of a large number of world's records. It is geared to 110 inches. It will be ridden during the Fair races.

The Silver party, Democrats and Populists of Verdi held primaries yesterday to elect delegates to their several county conventions. There was considerable interest shown in the election and a good vote polled. There was a little confusion regarding the fact that M. J. Smith's name appeared on both the Silver and Populist tickets. It was finally settled by counting him with the Silverites, and it is presumed there will be a vacancy on the Populist ticket.

The following are the delegates elected:

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial box will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels, greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by S. J. Hodgkinson, Druggist.

Your Boy Won't Live a Month.

So Mr. Gilman Brown, of 34 Mill St., South Gardner, Mass., was told by the doctors. His son had Lung trouble, following Typhoid Malaria, and he spent three hundred and seventy-five dollars with doctors, who finally gave him up, saying: "Your boy won't live a month." He tried Dr. King's New Discovery and a few bottles restored him to health and enabled him to go to work a perfectly well man. He says he owes his present good health to the use of Dr. King's New Discovery, and knows it to be the best in the world for Lung trouble. Trial Bottles Free at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

They Seem Greatly Interested.

It was quite funny yesterday, but not at all strange, to see several leading Republicans taking an active part in the Populist primaries, even going so far as to peddle tickets and ask men to vote them. Every little while one of them would go to the polls, find out the number of ballots cast, return and report to his friends and all would start out on another chase. Just why the G. O. P. representatives were so interested outside of their own affairs is doubtless best known to themselves, but can be easily guessed by others.

Mrs. B. E. Hunter is the busy woman who has in less than four years, here in Reno, sold Thirteen Thousand Seven Hundred dollars worth of Viavi remedies. The reason so much has been sold is simply because they are the grandest remedies in the world and will not fail to cure if used as recommended. Gentlemen who have stomach troubles, come and get some of our tableoids; you will never regret it. Any person who is ill, come and see if we have not a remedy that will cure you.

The latest in hats will be on display at Miss Gibbs' millinery parlors on Monday, September 14th, at 2 P. M., and following days. Sky-lark saliors, horned toad and snake trimming are some of the new fads.

C. Lemery will serve an elegant dinner at the Arcade restaurant to-day, and during the week he will offer the best accommodations. Oysters in every style a specialty; also fine trout, and, in fact, all of the delicacies the market affords.

Thyres will spread his usual fine lunch to-day. There will be Irish stew, fresh lobster salad and many other good things. Call and enjoy a good lunch with a glass of A. B. C. St. Louis beer, or any mixed drink.

It is reported that the tornado that swept over the cities of Salt Lake and Ogden night before last caused considerable damage and the loss of five or six lives. A fire broke out in the warehouse of Kiesel & Co., Ogden. The loss is estimated at $50,000.

Professor Ed. J. Baladen of the Rambler Bicyclorama, San Francisco, is in Reno and will give exhibitions of fancy bicycle riding at the track and Pavilion each day and evening during the week. It is said that he is one of the finest trick riders on the coast.

General Powning was as busy as a bee yesterday in completing the details for the State Fair next week. Indications bid fair for the most successful meeting ever held. The program will be carried out to the letter and the week promises to be six days of great sport.

Lines to a Blotting Pad.

Then kindly porous plaster for the ink
Occasioned by the ink a post spill.
Absorb into itself his many faults.
And sponges his verse whose rhyme or rhythm
hates!

Yet lost perchance thy too retentive touch
Appropriate in passing overmuch.
They leave a trace of what he would imply
Were thought but free and ink allowed to dry.
In former times they sprinkled out the sand
To sweep it off and let the writing stand.
Wallo nowadays a line is hardly wet
Ere we regret and seek to alter it
And spend in amendment so much pains
That scarce an inkling of the truth remains.
So for the noise let my poor pen run free
And leave recorded whatever it be.
Grant it expression for a final line,
And all that went before is gladly thine.
Then will this postscript yet suffice to show,
"Till love sweet Allen long as ink shall flow."

PRECEDENCE IN ENGLAND.

The Red Tape That Rules the Position of Women at Table.

To Americans the great question of precedence at formal English dinners presents a humorous and, but to our transatlantic cousins it is deeply serious.
Many an English girl thinks it worth while to be miserable all her life if she may lead the way to the festal board.
Here is the table of rank in its proper order, which she must have engraved upon the fleshy tablets of her heart, complicated, moreover, with exact knowledge as to which of two baronets or earls is of the earlier "creation." It is recommended to the devout study of future American countesses or duchesses:

Is Burglary a Science?

The modern burglar is a scientist and inventor in his way. Recently a new era in safe breaking and other branches of the cracksmen's art has opened, and the famous jimmy, so long rampant on the successful burglar's coat of arms, is to be superseded by more convenient labor saving tools.

In Marseille the other day a gang of ingenious cracksmen entered a banker's office armed with a steel saw of the newest construction and a handy little gas engine. There was no need for the exercise of muscle, nor was there any necessity for a good strong wrist at the saw, as there was at one time in the amuse of famous robbers.

The little engine was started, the saw put in the proper place and the connections made. Seating themselves serenely upon a couple of chairs near at hand, these modern burglars watched the true and rapid work of their appliances.

The big safe might have resisted for hours the force of human hands, but there, impelled by the engine, it could not stand against. The stout iron safe promptly yielded up its contents of over $200 worth of gold and bonds, and in a matter of minutes the thieves had taken to have committed the robbery
under the old conditions the burglars were well out of the building with their booty.—Pioneer's Weekly.

Patents In England.

The British government makes no examination to determine the validity of a device for which a patent is asked,
but takes it for granted that every in-

MONREALE CATHEDRAL.
Thought by Many to Be the Noblest Church in the World.

Monreale, by many, deemed "the noblest church in the world," together with the vast Benedictine abbey and cloister—"a monastic Alhambra" (now also falling to ruin)—was created a cathedral in 1183 by Pope Lucius III,
who, looking on the work, exclaimed,
"The like of this church hath not been constructed by any king, even from ancient times, and it must compel all men to admiration!"

If, externally, in the first view of Monreale's disappointment awaits one,
that may be because on the way there one's eyes have grown too accustomed to beauty. For that same morning one may have seen the sun rise from the lively chapel behind Santa Maria de Gesu, looked thence down upon the mountain girdled plain and white domed
city of Palermo carved round the azure
bay, or, climbing Monte Pellegrino, flanked by its sheer precipices 1,900 feet, you may have heard the noon angels bell float skyward from all Palermo's towers. Then, as the sunbeams began to slant, the ride up from the valley of the Concha Do'ro, under the blossom starred boughs of almond and orange trees, past the old convent of San Martino—gray hermit, cowered in pines—up and up to Monreale.

If the dome appears small and the towers plain the eastern portal compensa-tes for all. Great richness is produced by the mode of its ornamentation, the interlaced arches, upheld by slender pillars, being formed of alternate blocks of black and white marble, the panels diversified with multicolored mosaics.
The three beautiful doors are of bronze elaborately adorned with Scriptural designs and arabesques, the largest one executed by the architect of Pisa's leaning tower.

Within the blending of different styles is remarkable. It is in form, according to the founder's wish, a Latin cross.
Its columns are borrowed from Roman temples, their capitals Greek. The Byzantine mosaics, in which Monreale is the richest of all mediæval churches, wrought upon a gold ground, time has mellowed into a delicious purple haze of glory. The nave is ample, and the arches slightly pointed. Narrow windows cast a tempered radiance over the flat, gorgeously embellished roof. There is a single aisle. The east end consists of three apses, the largest one terminating in the high altar.

Above it, unique in design, is the famous fresco, a half length figure of Christ, so colossal that the whole edifice seems a mantle thrown about it.
The right hand is outstretched in benediction; the left holds an open book wherein is written, "I am the light of the world."—Avo Maria.

To Be Expected.

There was recently a public sale of the effects of a deceased artist who, though he never had any money and was always at the end of his resources, had managed to accumulate a considerable amount of bric-a-brac, chiefly for use in his trade.

All these things were sold for the benefit of his needy widow.

Among the items on the published catalogue was the following eloquent one:
"One money box, decorated, quite magnificent."—Youth's Companion

SUMMONS.
IN THE SECOND JUDICIAL DISTRICT Court of the State of Nevada, in and for Washoe county.
The State of Nevada sends to Margaret Dodge greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by Charles H. Dodge as plaintiff in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, and answer the complaint thereto within ten days after the service on you of this summons (exclusive of day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county, but within said judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. And in all other cases forty days, exclusive of the day of service, shall be allowed you to answer. If you fail to do so, judgment shall be entered against you according to the prayer of said complaint, which is on file in the office of the Clerk of said Court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred.
And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint the said plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded.
In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set
my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, at Reno, this 24th day of July, A. D. 1896.
F. B. PORTER, Clerk.
